Press Release

Bermuda Football Association (BFA) National Senior Men's football team will start their campaign bid when they will play their first two games of the FIFA World Cup CONCACAF Qualifying Group 2 in the Caribbean against Trinidad and Tobago and Guyana.

National Team Head Coach, Devarr Boyles revealed the Bermuda World Cup team during a Press Conference held at the Bermuda Football Association boardroom. The Bermuda squad will consist of 22 players, three coaches and a Head of Delegation (HOD) when they depart Monday for Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

The entire delegation will meet in Fort Lauderdale, Monday evening. Once they arrive, the team will train Tuesday morning followed by an afternoon session. The following day, Wednesday, the squad will depart for Trinidad & Tobago. Two days later, Friday September 2nd, Bermuda will play their first match against Trinidad.

Meanwhile, Bermuda will now play their second match in Guyana Tuesday September 6 instead of Bermuda. Therefore the squad will remain in Trinidad for an extra day, and then depart for Guyana Sunday morning. In addition this now means we will host the next three games in Bermuda, Friday October 7th, vs Trinidad & Tobago, Tuesday October 11th, vs Guyana and Friday November 11th against Barbados. The last away match will be played Tuesday November 15th in Barbados.
